Villa Igiea Palermo 5*

An iconic palace in the city of Palermo, directly on the sea and at the foot of Monte Pellegrino, just half an hour's drive from the airport, was inaugurated in 1900 as a hotel and soon became the preferred destination for aristocrats and Hollywood actors.

The historic villa, designed in grand style by the Sicilian architect Ernesto Basile at the request of the Florio family, represents the highest expression of Palermo's Liberty style of that period.

After a careful restoration overseen by Olga Polizzi and designer Paolo Moschino, the villa has returned to its former glory with the philosophy and service signed by Rocco Forte Hotels.
